SCENE SETTER

Oklahoma plays its first road game of the season when it travels to Alabama. This marks the Sooners' first trip to a Southeastern Conference venue since Sept. 18, 1982, when they prevailed at Kentucky, 29-8. The trip to Tuscaloosa will be the first by an OU football team to the state of Alabama. The Crimson Tide open with five straight home games this season. The first was last week against South Florida in Birmingham. This contest represents the first of four straight in Tuscaloosa.

THE POLLS

OU is No. 1 in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today polls. Alabama is unranked, but received votes in the AP Poll. Never before has the Crimson Tide hosted the No. 1-ranked team.

THE SERIES

The series is knotted at 1-1-1. Last year's game, a 37-27 win for OU in Norman, Okla., was the first meeting between the two during the regular season. Alabama prevailed in the 1963 Orange Bowl, 17-0, then the two teams played to a 24-all stalemate in the 1970 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl.

LAST YEAR'S GAME

Oklahoma roared to a 23-3 halftime bulge, then was stunned by an Alabama comeback that resulted in the Crimson Tide taking a 27-23 lead. OU regrouped when Renaldo Works took a pair of shovel passes for a total of 62 yards to set up an 8-yard touchdown burst by Kejuan Jones. That play came with just 2:11 remaining to retrieve the lead for the Sooners. On the ensuing possession, Alabama was on the move when QB Tyler Watts fumbled. OU safety Eric Basseby scooped up the ball and ran 45 yards for the TD that iced the game.

THE COACHES

Oklahoma: Bob Stoops (Iowa '78), now in his fifth season with the Sooners, is 44-9 overall. He is 3-1 in bowls, 3-0 in January bowls, 2-0 in BCS games, 26-7 vs. the Big 12, 15-5 vs. the Big 12 South, 11-2 vs. the Big 12 North, 2-0 in the Big 12 Championship game, 18-2 vs. non-conference foes, 24-1 at home, 12-6 on the road, 8-2 on neutral fields and 1-0 vs. Alabama.

Alabama: Mike Shula (Alabama '87) is 1-0 in his first year at his alma mater.

ON THE AIR

ESPN is televising nationally. The broadcasters are Ron Franklin (play-by-play), Mike Gottfried (color) and Adrian Karsten (sideline). The Sooner Network has the radio call with Bob Barry, Sr., (play-by-play), Merv Johnson (color) and Mark Rodgers (sideline). In addition, the ESPN Gameday television and radio crews will be on hand. ## ABOUT THE OPPONENT

- Alabama opened with a 40-17 win over South Florida, a team Oklahoma defeated in Norman last season, 31-14. OU, on the other hand, opened this season with a 37-3 win over North Texas, a team the Crimson Tide downed last year, 33-7.
- Alabama under first-year head coach Mike Shula, returns 43 lettermen and 13 starters (six offense, six defense and one specialist) from last year's 10-3 team that tied for first in the SEC West and earned a No. 11 ranking in the final AP poll.
- Alabama and South Florida were knotted at 17 at halftime of last week's game, but the Crimson Tide scored 16 unanswered points in the third quarter. The big blow was a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Shaud Williams. It was on of three touchdowns the former Texas Tech back scored.
- At age 38, Shula is the second-youngest head coach in I-A behind Rutgers' Greg Schianno. OU's Bob Stoops was 39 when he entered his first season with the Sooners in 1999.
- There are two former I-A head coaches on the Alabama staff. Dave Rader was the head man at Tulsa from 1988-99 and Sparky Woods was in charge at South Carolina from 1989-93.
- There is one Oklahoman on the Alabama roster -- WLB Mark Anderson (Tulsa)

OKLAHOMA-ALABAMA TIES

- Alabama offensive coordinator Dave Rader is a Tulsa native, who was a standout player at TU and the Golden Hurricane head coach from 1988-99.
- UA defensive line coach Buddy Wyatt was Oklahoma State's defensive line coach in 1996.
- Assistant head coach and defensive coordinator Joe Kines was Florida State's linebackers coach when OU and FSU met in the 2000 national championship game.
- Secondary coach Chris Ball and offensive line coach Bob Connelly were on the Washington State staff that opposed OU in last season's Rose Bowl.
- OU defensive line coach Jackie Shipp held the same position at Alabama in 1998. Sooner running backs coach Cale Gundy was on the Alabama-Birmingham staff from 1995-98.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

In Bob Stoops' three seasons, Oklahoma is 15-1 in regular season non-conference games.

Throw in the four bowl tilts and the Sooners are 18-2 vs. non-Big 12 teams.

- OU has won 14 straight non-conference games, including the Rose Bowl victory over Washington State in January. That streak includes five games that were not played in Norman.
- OU's last loss to a non-league opponent came on Dec. 31, 1999, when Mississippi downed the Sooners, 27-25, in the Independence Bowl. The last regular season setback at the hands of a non-conference foe came on Oct. 2, 1999, when Notre Dame clipped OU, 34-30.
- Oklahoma is 18-8-3 vs. teams currently holding membership in the Southeastern Conference.
- Two of OU's four bowl opponents under Bob Stoops have been from the SEC. The Sooners dropped the 1999 Independence Bowl to Mississippi (27-25), then whipped Arkansas in the 2002 Cotton Bowl (2001 season), 10-3.

OU'S NON-LEAGUE FOES IMPRESSIVE

Oklahoma's non-conference opponents were a combined 35-18 last season, went 3-0 in bowl play and all finished in the upper division of their respected conferences ...

Opponent	2002 Record	Note
North Texas	8-5	New Orleans Bowl (W), two-time defending Sun Belt Champ
Alabama	10-3	Tied for SEC West title
Fresno State	9-5	Silicon Valley Classic (W), third in WAC
UCLA	8-5	Las Vegas Bowl (W), tied for fourth in Pac 10

SOONERS NO. 1

Oklahoma is ranked No. 1 in both polls and was the preseason No. 1, too. It is the ninth time overall and the first time since 1987 that the Sooners have entered a year atop the AP rankings. In four of those seasons, OU went on to win the national championship.

- The Sooners are 59-6-0 when carrying the No. 1 ranking.
- Oklahoma has the third-longest active streak in terms of consecutive weeks in the AP rankings. Michigan tops the list at 79, followed by Miami at 57 and OU at 54.
- Oklahoma media relations personnel was able to uncover 18 different preseason rankings for college football. Oklahoma is No. 1 in 10 of those with a composite ranking of No. 1. None of those rankings lists OU any lower than No. 4.

THE WHITE STUFF

In his first game back from a second rehab for a torn ACL, Sooner QB Jason White was impressive against North Texas. He completed 23-of-35 passes for 248 yards with three touchdowns and one interception. He left the game with more than 11 minutes remaining. White tore is left ACL in the 2001 game at Nebraska. He then tore his right ACL in last season's game against Alabama. In neither case was he injured by contact.

- White is now No. 17 on OU's career passing list with 1,219 yards, just three behind No. 16 Steve Collins. White has played in 12 games during his career.
- White threw one more pass (35) against North Texas than he attempted in his two games played combined last season (34).
- White has thrown nine touchdown passes over his last six games played, only five of which were starting assignments. In his five career starts combined, White is 80-of-126 (.635) for 822 yards and five touchdowns with four interceptions. He did not play past the mid-point of the second quarter in two of those starts. OU is 4-1 in White's starts.

CATCHING ON

Oklahoma entered this season minus the top four pass catchers in school history (by receptions). RB Quentin Griffin, WR Curtis Fagan, WR Antwone Savage and TE Trent Smith all finished their eligibility last season. Couple that with the fact that Will Peoples, the top returning receiver with 39 catches a year ago, missed opener with a mild knee ailment, and the first-game effort by the receiving corps was particularly impressive ...

• Jejuan Rankins' three-yard touchdown reception from Jason White in the first quarter was the first reception and touchdown of his career. The last player to score a touchdown on his first career pass reception was Arthur Guess in 1987 against Tulsa on a 21-yd. pass. Rankins became the 37th Sooner to catch two or more touchdown passes in a single game and the ninth during Stoops' era. He also is just the third Sooner to do so in a season opener.

• The 64-yard touchdown from Jason White to Brandon Jones, who also is an outfielder on OU's baseball team, was a personal best for both players. Jones, who entered the game with nine career receptions for 133 yards, also recorded career highs in total receptions (10) and yards (121). The 100-yard game was a first for Jones, the 54th in Oklahoma history and the 15th in the Stoops era. Jones' 10 catches also represented the most by a Sooner in a season opener. Jones' 121 yards in receptions ranks third all-time for a season opener.

• Travis Wilson's 13-yard touchdown reception was the second touchdown of his career. Wilson pulled down an 11-yard TD against UTEP last season. Wilson nearly equaled his career output at receiver in the game. Coming in, he had five career receptions for 50 yards. He finished the opener with four receptions for 58 yards.

• Tight end James "Bubba" Moses entered this season with two career receptions, but made three for 30 yards in his first career start.

STRAIT TALK

Derrick Strait was named SBC Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week for his efforts against North Texas. He had seven tackles, one fumble forced (a turnover that was later converted into a touchdown by the OU offense) and one pass broken up. The pass deflection was the 44th of his career, tying a school mark set by current Dallas Cowboy Roy Williams.

TREY GOOD FOR THREE

K Trey DiCarlo got off to a good start with his work against North Texas -- he made all three of his field goal (37, 40, 46), the last of which tied a career long. He has now made his last four field goals in a row. The best streak of his career is six straight, which ran from the Texas A&M game through his first made field goal in the Rose Bowl. Dating back to the 2002 Texas A&M game, DiCarlo has made 10 of 11 field goal attempts. Perhaps even more impressive in the North Texas game was the fact that three of his kickoffs resulted in touchbacks. Last year, he had just nine all season.

FOR STARTERS

CB Derrick Strait, already the career leader for games started and consecutive starts by a defensive back, makes his 42nd start this week. He currently ranks No. 12 in career games started (tracked only since 1980).

- The defensive unit's nine return starters have a combined 253 starting assignments at OU.
- The offensive line contains no seniors, but has a combined 76 starts.

STILL YOUNG

Twenty-two of the players listed on Oklahoma's depth chart are freshmen or sophomores. The first depth chart of last season had 26 players that fit that bill.

• On opening night, the Sooner offense started two seniors, four juniors, four sophomores and a freshman. The defense started with five seniors, five juniors and one sophomore. OU's starting punter was a junior and the kicker a sophomore.

When Bob Stoops arrived at Oklahoma prior to the 1999 season, it had been five seasons since the storied Sooner program had finished above .500, four since it last played in a bowl game.

In Stoops' first three seasons, OU captured a national championship, 31 victories and three bowl appearances. The lightning-quick return to national prominence was so complete as to almost obliterate perhaps the most impressive achievement of all ... the turnaround itself.

Few could have envisioned OU's dip in the middle '90's. Fewer could have predicted the extent to which the Schooner would be righted under Stoops. The head coach stubbornly points to the program as a whole when defining the resurgence. Humility aside, it is Stoops who deserve a lion's share of the credit ...

- He is the first OU coach to take his first three teams to bowl games.
- One of 18 head coaches hired on the D-I level in 1999, he has been the most successful of the class with a 41-9 mark.
- His 31-7 three-year start is the fifth-best three-year mark in NCAA history.
- More than 70 school records have been set during the his tenure.
- In 24 home games, his teams have out-scored their opponents 785-208.
- Every home game of his OU tenure has been a sellout. The average attendance at Memorial Stadium during that time is 75,075. The facility has a listed capacity of 72,765.
- During his tenure, OU has 18 national television appearances, nine visits from ESPN's GameDay and five cover photos on Sports Illustrated.

If not for its meteoric pace, Stoops' career would read like a textbook rise in the coaching profession.

A four-year starter as a player at Iowa, he began his coaching career in a volunteer capacity at his alma mater in 1983. He worked through the ranks until he became co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State from 1991-95. With the Wildcats, he played a key role in the impressive turnaround. During his final four seasons there, K-State was 35-12 with three bowl appearances.

Then came a three-year stint as Florida's defensive coordinator from 1996-98. It was during that time that the national spotlight focused on his accomplishments. The move to a head coaching role was a hiring for the ages in Norman.

Stoops has restored the Sooner pride, while carving out a niche' for a new era.

No. 1/1 Oklahoma 37, North Texas 0

Aug. 30 @ Norman, Okla.

Jason White, in his debut after a second reconstructive knee surgery, fired three touchdown passes and Oklahoma's defense was dominant in a 37-3 win over two-time defending Sun Belt Conference champion North Texas.

The first of three Trey DiCarlo field goals gave the Sooners a lead on their initial possession. Scoring strikes from White to Jejuan Rankins (three yards) and Brandon Jones (64 yards) quickly made the lead comfortable.

North Texas had no success against the OU defense. The Sooners recovered a fumble, intercepted a pass and logged three sacks. Derrick Strait had seven tackles, a forced fumble and a pass deflection to spearhead the effort.

Oklahoma built a 30-0 lead before a late North Texas drive yielded a field goal. Reserve quarterback Paul Thompson then led a final scoring drive for OU.

The briefings originate from conference headquarters on the 28th Floor of the Wyndham Anatole Hotel, 2201 Stemmons Freeway, Dallas, Texas 75207-2805.

Media wishing to attend the sessions at the conference office may do so. Those media wishing to dial into the conference should contact the Big 12 office for the phone number. A replay of the briefing is available at 4 p.m. central time.

Each Tuesday during the season, OU will host a media luncheon inside the Barry Switzer Center, located on the south end of Memorial Stadium. The luncheon will begin at 11:15 a.m. with comments from the head coach of OU's opponent that week.

Lunch will be served at 11:30 a.m. and coach Stoops will address the attending media following lunch. There will also be a limited number of OU players on hand for interviews.

Assistant Coaches

Arrangements should be made through the media relations office. Most interviews will be conducted after practice Monday through Wednesday.

Players

All interviews with players will take place at the media luncheon or after practice on Monday and Tuesday. Media should request players 24 hours in advance to allow the athletes to be notified about the interview. Players who attend the Tuesday luncheon will not be available following practice that day.

Post-game

Members of the Oklahoma Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate locker room areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The home Oklahoma locker room, which is located behind the south end zone, is closed to the media at all times.

Head coach Bob Stoops and several Sooner players will be brought to the OU Red Room for interviews. The Red Room, which is located down the hall from the locker room, will be set up for writers to sit in front and camera operators may set up and shoot from the back.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter, interview requests will be collected. The top three OU players requested will be brought into the Red Room as soon as Coach Stoops is finished with his comments. Any other requested players will be brought into the room as soon as the first three players are finished.

The opposing head coach will meet with the media inside the opponent interview room. A representative from the OU Media Relations Office will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the postgame policy of that institution.

PRACTICE

Practices will be open to the media for the first 15 minutes Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. No practices will be open to fans unless previously announced. Members of the media are required to inform the media relations office when they plan to attend the beginning of a workout. Those in attendance are required to stay at the end of the practice field at all times unless escorted by a member of the media relations office.
